PERMISSION TO TAKE AND USE PHOTOS/VIDEOS

I understand that St. Martha Church has an "Opt Out" Policy regarding the creation and use of photos and video. On occasion, St. Martha Church, the Archdiocese of Miami and its representatives, volunteers, and employees, may take videos and pictures of participants. These images may be used to promote the ministry in print (bulletin, flyer, etc.), electronically (DVD, announcement slide, etc.) or online (www.stmarthamiami.com the official church website or Facebook Page, etc.). In addition to this, the Church will NOT post any user identifiable information relating to the people in these images without consent of the individuals and parents of minors of those involved. I acknowledge that I will contact the church office at if I do NOT wish to have images of myself or my child published in official church-related and church-produced media.

Due to the public nature of the events that the church holds, I understand that St. Martha Church does not and cannot monitor and regulate all pictures taken at church sponsored events. I further understand that the Church is not responsible for images uploaded to private or personal spaces online (such as a personal website or Facebook page). I do not hold St. Martha Church and the Archdiocese of Miami responsible for such images and postings.

I further acknowledge that I will not be compensated for these uses, and that St. Martha Church owns the rights to the images and recordings. I hereby release St. Martha Church, the Archdiocese of Miami, its representatives, volunteers, and employees, from any claims that may arise from these uses, including claims of defamation, invasion of privacy, or rights of publicity or copyright.
